

XM traffic and weather reports are a useful and valuable service that I already pay for. The quality and variety provided by XM radio is not available anywhere on regular FM and AM radio. The weather channel is provided on cable that one must pay for; however, weather forecasts on your local news can still co-exist.